Jana, We've had alot of fun this year in summer class. You are a real sweet girl. I hope to see you next year. Love,
Gymn H,
Jana,

It is appropriate that the annual of Memorial's first graduation year have as its theme the school dedication, the aims and ideals of which will be first expressed and exemplified by its 1964 seniors.

It has been nice knowing you this year. So good we don't have more classes together. Lots of luck in whatever you do.

First place Freedom Fair winners were Charles Anderson, Themes; Hal Brainerd, Mock-Up; Doug Gatchell, Posters; Carl Guild, Grand Prize; Marie Dillon, Grand Prize; Mike Richardson, Miscellaneous.

Science and Freedom Fairs

Science Fair winners were first place, Zurn Johnson; second place, Jon Heath; third place, Austin Winther.

On November 22, 1963, Memorial students witnessed the formal coronation of Miss Memorial I, Sue Ratcliffe. Members of the royal court were Carol Worl, Dennis O'Brien, Vicki Muse, Harold Stewart, Julie Lottinville, Tom Simpson, Rod Hatchett, Steve Coenen, Sue Ratcliffe, Cindy Perigo, Phyllis Yadon, Jerry Perigo, Patti Oertle, Robert Yaap, Donna Morgan, and Mike Nolan.

Highlights of Assemblies

Memorial students heard many fine assembly speakers during the year. Among them was Mr. Robert Wilbur, of Jersey Production Research Co.

The mixed chorus under the direction of Mr. Don Linde gave many excellent performances throughout the year, climaxed by the Spring Concert.

Steve Coenen crowns Sue Ratcliffe, Miss Memorial I.

In a pep assembly before a Memorial-Edison game, Judy Orwig portrays a hexed Eagle.

Jerry Perigo presents "Little Charge," Memorial's mascot, during a pep assembly, while Robbie Tennyson calms the tiny pony during its appearance.

Kim Anderson, who played the Stage Manager in Our Town, and romantic leads, Anne Devine and Bob Miller, rehearse a difficult scene.

Memorial Charger's football team has proven to be one of which we are all extremely proud. After a slow first season the Chargers shocked ten thousand spectators at Skelly Stadium by taking second in the All-City. Following the All-City the Chargers romped over Kelley, 32-0, in their first full game victory. Unlike last year the greater portion of the squad was composed of returning lettermen with a year of experience behind them. Next year's team will have a turnover due to the graduation of the seniors.

Cross Country

Through participating in many large invitational meets, the cross country team has gained invaluable experience. We are very proud of our team for taking first in conference this season. The quality, which has improved through hard work, will provide a better background for an opening next year.

Pep Club

The Memorial Pep Club, in keeping with the tradition of spirit and enthusiasm set by the first year, followed through with many new activities and novelties. New projects included the proud introduction of "Lil Charge," our shetland pony mascot, selling nuts, spirit ribbons and car streamers. Activities such as these account for the outstanding reputation of Memorial students. For their never ending stream of enthusiastic spirit the Pep Club is proud to be the central factor in bringing this reputation about.

Journalism

Memorial's Journalism staff attended the Chicago Convention and the T.U. Convention in order to further their experience. They work very hard to produce the bi-weekly column of Banner lines in the School Life and the monthly Memogram, that tells all the activities of the school for that month. Their sponsor, Mr. Dykes, is also the co-ordinator of Tulsa School Life.

Memorial owes its excellent coverage of school events to the Journalism staff. Joe Miller, Nada Gregory, Keni Magoon, Garnell Mobley, Jamey Dayton.

One of the highlights of an exciting and rewarding year was the coronation of Her Majesty, Miss Memorial I, and her lovely attendants. Mike Noland, Rod Hatchett, Steve Coenen, Robert Yaap, Jerry Perrigo, Sue Ratcliffe, Phyllis Yadon, Patti Oertle, Donna Morgan.

Sophomore Officers

Vicki Storseth, Secretary; Steve Earl, Vice President; Brad Jones, President; Barbara Mills, Social Chairman; Sydnee Shortridge, Treasurer.

Sophomore Board

Realizing that their future success at Memorial depended largely on the foundations they would lay in this their first year, the Sophomore Board worked seriously in planning their varied activities and therefore gave their class excellent leadership.

The Senior sponsored watermelon feast, held in August, was thoroughly enjoyed by all who attended, and gave the Sophomores an excellent chance to get acquainted.

The main corridor was a busy center for such varied activities as bakesales, mixers, and a shoe-shine parlor, as well as providing students with a place to congregate before school.

Dear Janna,
I'm so glad we have a chance to meet this yr.
You are one of the shyest people I know - and you really shouldn't be with your darling personality. I'm glad you joined J & C with me.
May God Bless and Keep you always. Paula Whitridge
"66"

Firmly founded Alma Mater Ever true we'll be.
Here within your halls of learning
Pledge we loyalty.
We'll sing your praises,
Speed them onward,
to the world proclaim That we'll always shield
and cherish
Memorial High School's
name.

All along the road
of life
We will march with pride; Hold aloft the torch of honor Flung to us by those who died.
And as you stand in living memory,
We will spread your fame.
For we'll always shield
and cherish
Memorial High School's
name.

Janna,
You are a real sweet girl and you and I have had a blast in Red Cross. I hope we have some classes together next year.
Good luck. Libby Trantz

It seems that we have managed to get in the same English Class for two years.
Remember 8th grade? Well, it's been fun both times and it's been inspiring to be around you because of your honesty and intelligence. Good luck through your high school years.

Jan(na),

you're a real swell chick and all that jazz for passing two classes with me. I'm looking forward to next year (if I make it) with you.

Jim Stevenson

Well, Janna Piskis, what can I say. I know how much I've enjoyed your friendship and I always will. And I know how much fun we had on our "Caesar" assignment! Best of luck throughout your life.

We look great in Mexico.
Laurie Brady

Anna,
I don't know which is worse, being in Mrs. Russell's maximum security penal institution, or Mr. Wheeler - the great scholar. Whichever is the worse it's been great being in both of them with you.
Jim Wheeler - '66.

I know how you must be tired from all the work you've done and I hope you'll have a good time with your family. I love you.

Janna,
A real sweet girl
with a winning personality.
Remember all the fun we've had and if you ever need a good laugh, think of me. Good luck in all you do. Take care and I do
love you.
Sometimes Remembered...
Jonie Bachman

Janna,
I've enjoyed you so much this year. (I will next) It's wonderful knowing someone as sincere and "shy" as you. First, second hour could never have been the same without you!

Good luck,
Jan

Always,
Janie
Best of luck

Janna, It's been great knowing for this short time. Good Luck
Larry Bridger

Janna,
To a very nice and cute girl. Have enjoyed knowing you these last 3 years.
Good luck in the future,
Dean Jordan

Janna,
It's really been fun being with you in history—even though you got 1st chair once. I think you're one of the sweetest girls I know. I hope you have a wonderful junior year!
Janice
Hugson

Janna,

Lots of luck in your future years.
It's been fun sharing Mrs. Johnston with you this year. Maybe we'll get her next year.

Merry Christmas,

TAYLOR PUBLISHING COMPANY

"The World's Best Yearbooks Are Taylor-made"

Commencement Services held Monday, May 25th, at 8:00 p.m. at the Fairground's Educational Building, climaxed the two years of untiring efforts of the Class of 1964 at Memorial High School. Speaker for the evening was Admiral Ben Morrell. Officially ending their high school career were 247 seniors, 95% of whom plan to continue with higher education. Needless to say, Memorial can be proud of its first graduating class.

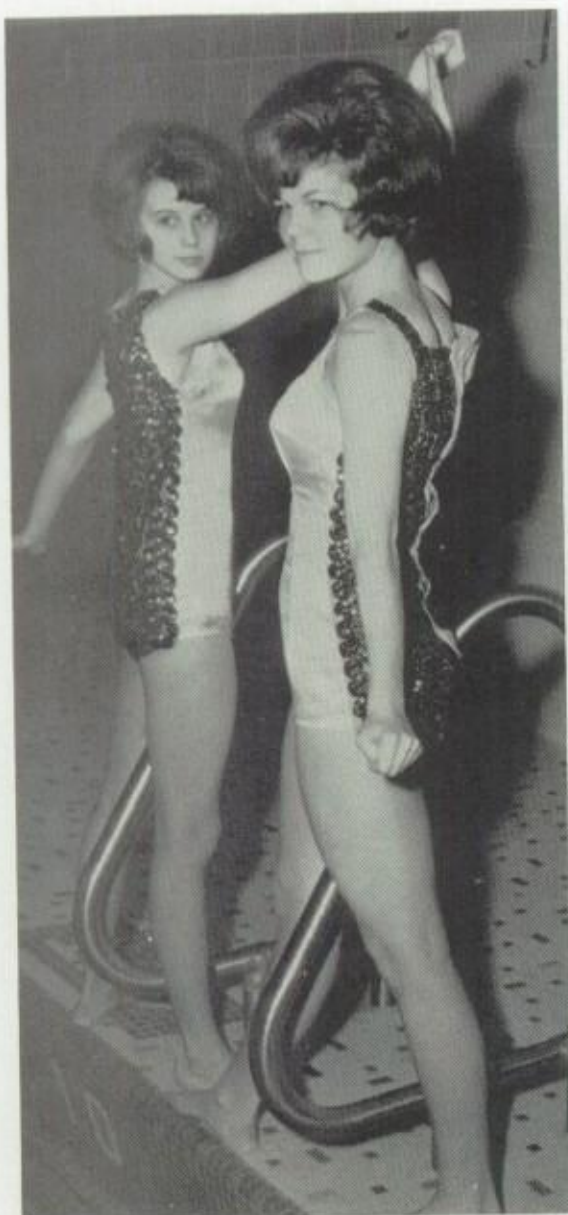

"Taps 1964 Spring Supplement"

Now that an eventful road lies behind you, and a worthwhile journey has passed into the sacred halls of memory, may you go forth into the adult world with a courage and faith drawn from the untiring labors, wonderful experiences, and lasting friendships you found at Memorial. We, who remain, pledge to you our utmost efforts to uphold the standards you have set for us.

May God prosper your lives so that you may leave the same, solid inspiration behind you wherever you go as you have left at Memorial.

Flashing Fins: Rita Cottingim and Brenda Kennedy.

Memorial swim champs, Steve Coenen and Greg Chalmers, portrayed scuba divers and narrated the show.

Surfs Present "Seascape"

Sea Gulls: Pam Stone, Ann Collings, Diane O'Dell, Glynna Weger.

Devil Fish: Glynna Weger, Patti Clemmons, Garnell Mobley, Rita Cottingim, Margaret Wyatt.

Playful Crabs: Margaret Wyatt, Pattie Clemmons, Garnell Mobley.

Five Mellow Winds: Jim Beaman, Steve Johnson, Richard Lyke, Ronnie Stafford.

Chorus and Bands Present "Music to Remember"

Performers in the Music Man section of the show were: Cindy Nunley, Tom Simpson, John Earl, and Marty Christ.

Jane Saxby and Dick Schrader pose at Sadie Hawkins Dance.

Sadie Hawkin's Dance

Kathy Weltsch and Barbie Slagle pin the "lovely" corsages they have made on their respective "catches" for the evening.

A.F.S. Family Night

Memorial students, parents, and faculty shared many enjoyable moments at the Family Night held to raise funds for the A.F.S. Program. Among the highlights of the evening were a delicious pancake supper, a feature movie, entertainment by talented students, and the crowning of Mr. Pancake, Frank Smith, by Miss Memorial I, Sue Ratcliffe. Frank ate 7 pancakes in one minute.

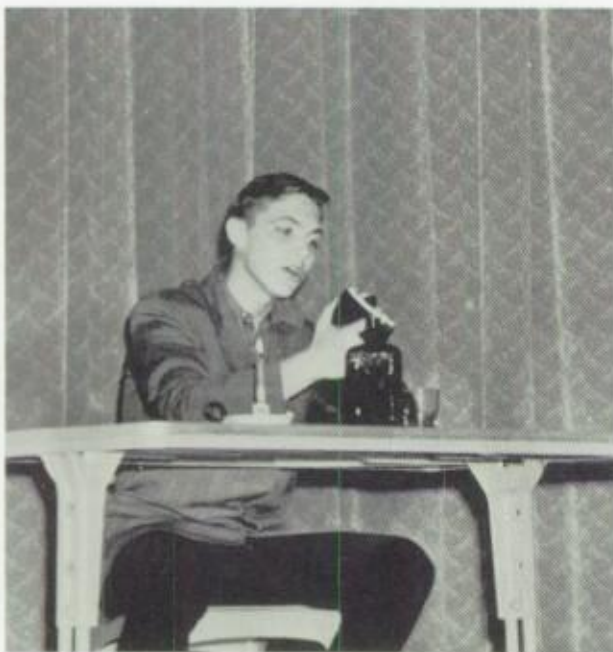

Student Council Dance

Robbie Tennyson and Frank Graves set the pace at the Student Council Dance.

Ben Dellavedova recites the poem, "My Book."

Mike Denney, a tremendous, young drummer, performs "Castillion Drums."

Carolyn Martin, Cindy Duvall, and Linda Kiger, The Stri-Wea Girls, play "Cryin'," an original song by Cindy Duvall.

Top Brass

The three classes of Memorial presented on May 9, 1964, their first Talent Review. Memorial's talents range from singing, to acting, to playing the Marimba, an instrument much like the xylaphone. The show was a tremendous success, and much of it was due to the guidance of its faculty sponsor, Miss Adella Anderson.

Seniors Receive Caps and Gowns

Patti Oertle's and Bob Dry's portrayal of Sue Ratcliffe and Steve Coenen at the Coronation was a big hit at the Senior Breakfast.

Senior Breakfast

Pat Poole, David Wadley, and Bob Dry do a take-off on the "Good Sportsmanship" of Memorial Seniors of '64.

Juniors who earned a standing ovation by staging hilarious skits at the Senior Breakfast were: Stan Brown, Pat Poole, David Wadley, Janet Aaronson, Barbie Slagle, Patti Oertle (hidden), Carol Rodgers, Glenda Holland, David Barrett. Also in the skits were Bob Dry and Cindy Duvall who are not shown.

Seniors and their parents attended a tea in the Cafeteria Monday morning before the Class Day Assembly.

Rick Newton excellently portrayed Mr. McKinney at "The Dog-Ears Assembly."

Mr. Hickman (portrayed by John Earl) and Mr. Linde (portrayed by Tom Terry) argue over which one of them was the better sponsor for the Class of '64.

Seniors Say Farewell to Memorial

Bill Gorney and Micki Mytinger portray that familiar couple, John Harris and Laura Ward.

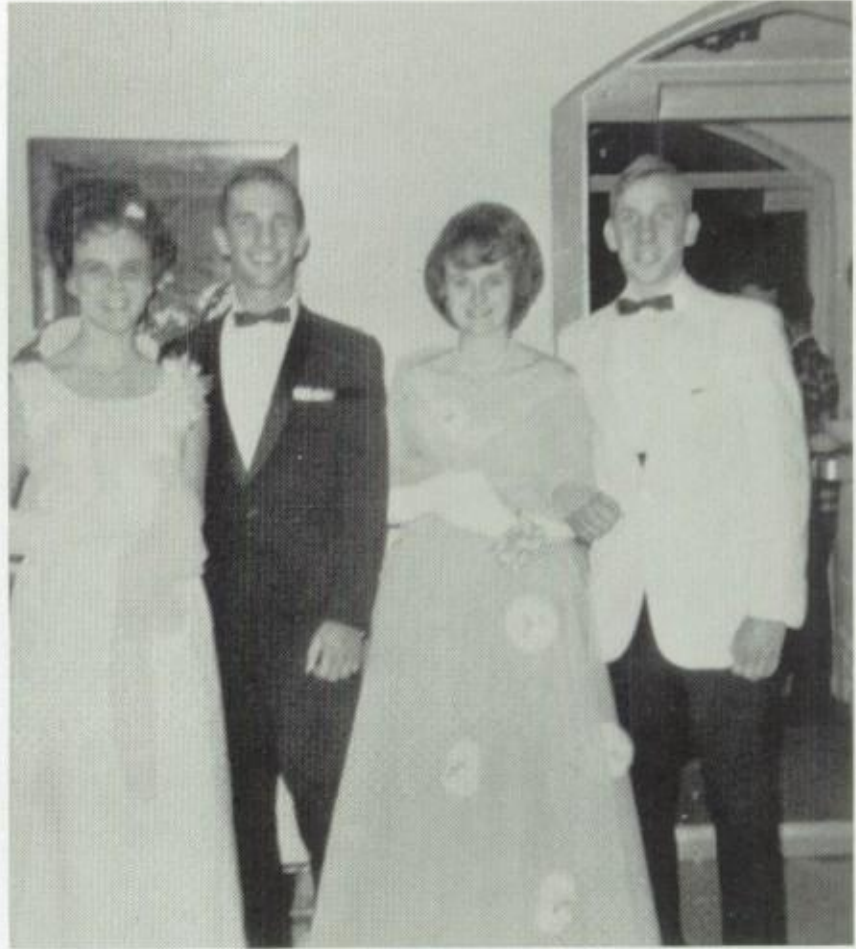

Nada and Wolf refused to say "Goodbye." Instead they said, "We'll be seeing you."

Class Day Assembly

Not pictured well here, but loved nonetheless are Senior homeroom teachers, Mrs. Paxton, and Mr. Chapman, chosen by the Seniors as their Honorary Girl and Boy of the Month.

The Southern Hills Country Club Ballroom served as an elegant setting for Memorial's Senior Prom, designated by all who attended as the finest held in Tulsa this year.

Senior Dinner-Dance

"Three Coins in a Fountain"

Caught off guard at the Prom is Jerry Perigo, Pres. of the Senior Class of '64.

Memorial's first graduating class held its Senior Dinner at Southern Hills, beginning at 6:30 p.m., Friday, May 22.

The theme of the Dinner and Dance was "Three Coins in a Fountain." Two coins signified their years at Memorial while the third represented their future. The color scheme was silver and blue, with their flower, The American Beauty Rose adding a red accent. Decorating the head table was a beautiful Charger carved from ice and a bouquet of roses.

The Prom, also held at the Country Club, began at 9:00 p.m.

Mrs. Large, Senior English teacher, and her husband, attended the prom as chaperones.

Janna,
 You don't know what you've meant to me during these past two years. Without your help, kindness and your thoughtfulness I wouldn't know what I would have done. Your the sweetest, cutest girl, with the bubblest personality of any girl I know. Our fun and experiences will always be a memory I'll never forget. Stay as sweet as you are and you will have many friends.
 I hope your in all my classes next year but I doubt if that's possible. I hope we can get together this summer. Your a doll and I love you so much. Best of luck in the future.
 Your friend always,
 Janice
 P.S. Have loads of fun in Mexico. I will miss you a lot.

Janna,
 you are a very pretty girl and sweet as can be.
 Please is a word you find in everyones yearbook, but in yours it is serious and I hope you very much may have some classes together next year and become closer friends.

Always
 Janice

Janna,
 you are a real sweet girl so keep it up.
 Loads of luck
